

Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh inaugurates GVK CSIA Terminal 2

Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Dr. Manmohan Singh inaugurated the new integrated state-of-the-art Terminal 2 at GVK's Chhatrapati Shivaji International Airport (CSIA), in the presence of Hon'ble Governor of Maharashtra, Shri. K Shankarnarayanan, the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Maharashtra, Shri Prithviraj Chavan, Hon'ble Union Minister for Civil Aviation Shri Ajit Singh, our Founder Chairman and Managing Director, Dr. GVK Reddy and our Vice Chairman, Mr. G V Sanjay Reddy alongwith other dignitaries and GVK officials.

GVK has built the new integrated Terminal 2 as an iconic mega-structure (measuring 4.4 million sq. ft.) that will set global benchmarks in airport infrastructure development. Designed by Skidmore, Owings & Merrill LLP, an American architectural and engineering firm, T2 will have the ability to handle 40-45 million passengers per annum.

Traversing across four-levels, the vertical and compact design of T2 integrating all operations (International, Domestic, Cargo, Ground Handling, Security, Retail etc.) under one roof enables enhanced passenger servicing and operational efficiency of GVK CSIA.

Drawing inspiration from India's National bird – the Peacock, the design of T2 portrays the magnificent character of the White Peacock, representing flight, as well as rare beauty. The architecture of the new airport terminal essentially and proudly presents a new contemporary India and its possibilities. The new airport terminal is home to India's largest public Art Program – titled 'Jaya He' - in the form of a 3 km multistory Art Program that conveys a distinctive narrative of India's incredible diversity, living in multiple centuries simultaneously.

Mumbai set to fly high with swanky new Terminal 2

Newly inaugurated 4.4 million sq ft facility will be operational from Feb 12

Our Bureau
Mumbai, Jan 10

Come February 12, international travellers coming into Mumbai will get a feel of India's culture and ethos at the airport itself.

Prime Minister Manmohan Singh on Friday inaugurated the ambitious terminal 2, of T2, of the city's airport, a 4.4 million square feet project which has been inspired by India's national bird - the peacock.

"Very few airports in the world reflect the culture, ethos and the spirit of the country,"

MAY REGAIN

The erection of major infrastructure projects in the city's airfield and its proximity to the city's heart has led to some of the most congested areas in the city.

Several Mumbai by expansion projects, including the new Air India terminal, are under construction. Air India's new terminal is being built by Tata Airlines and is expected to be completed by 2012.

"My dream..."

My dream has been to create icons which will last for generations.

From building Hyderabad's first luxury hotel to India's first superhighway, GVK has created an iconic global landmark - Terminal 2 at Mumbai, which will make every Indian proud.

My company carries the vision of my nation, GVK, which has long since assumed an identity given to it by the people of India. It is a vision that signifies Vision, Performance and Triumph.

Today, T2 is being inaugurated by the Hon'ble Prime Minister Dr. Manmohan Singh. I would personally like to thank my partners, AICA, Airports and Airports Authority of India, and my colleagues who have been part of this journey. I appreciate the trust, loyalty, tenacity, hard work, dedication and tireless feedback in making my dream a reality.

GVK appoints new CEO for Oz operations

BUSINESS BUREAU

Hyderabad: City-based infrastructure major GVK on Monday announced the appointment of Darren Yeates as the new Chief Executive Officer for its Australian operations. He brings his vast experience to the final development stages of GVK's Galilee Basin mining projects.

Prior to this appointment, he was Chief Operating Officer and Acting CEO for Rio Tinto Coal Australia, and has over 30 years' experience in coal mining operations, mine infrastructure and resource sector industries.

Yeates has played a critical role in managing ports and infrastructure in the Pilbara, and brings a wealth of leadership and operational experience from leading Australian mining operations, which will ensure a seamless transition into our Galilee Basin coal and infrastructure projects.

"I am very pleased with the extensive leadership and experience that Yeates will bring to our organisation. I am extremely confident that Yeates' in-depth operational and project management experience will complement our existing management team and drive our Galilee Basin projects to operational reality," said Dr. GVK Reddy, Founding CMD, GVK Power and Infrastructure.

Reacting to his appointment, Yeates said his immediate focus would be to build on the significant progress achieved till date. "I am astutely aware of the strong position the projects are in today and of the significant progress the project team has achieved throughout the approvals and planning process for the Galilee Basin Projects," he added.
