

Our Philosophy on Corporate Governance

- GVKPIL aims at achieving transparency, accountability and equity in all facets of its operations, and in all interactions with stakeholders, including shareholders, employees, government, lenders and other constituents, while fulfilling the role of a responsible corporate representative committed to good corporate practices.
- We are committed to achieving the highest standards of Corporate Governance on a continuous basis by laying emphasis on ethical corporate citizenship and establishment of a corporate culture with Corporate Governance at its core.